[redacted] Arthur Perry, on the staff of Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, called to say that they had received another letter from [redacted] and asked if we might somehow write to [redacted] in an effort to cut off future correspondence to the Vice President. I indicated to Perry that we would attempt to do so. [redacted] is a constituent of Congressman Victor Wickersham (D., Okla.) who has offered to sell the Agency what he considers to be vital information for $2,500,000. 25X1 25X1

[redacted] Met with Nita Hopkins, in the office of Senator John M. Towers (R., Tex.), concerning correspondence forwarded by transmittal slip of 12 September which had been received by Senator Towers from Richard M. Burgess, Major, USAF, Ret., with regard to [redacted] Miss Hopkins was advised that as the result of prior correspondence received through the office of the Vice President, we had contacted [redacted] at his home and had no further need for meetings with him in Washington. Miss Hopkins advised that she would respond accordingly. No written answer to the Senator's transmittal of 12 September is required. 25X1
